

Event Management System

A simple platform for users to manage any event whichever it may be from reception to birthday party, etc. It can be used to connect various interested professionals with their prospective customers. Customers do not need to call or visit various places to make any reservations. All details such as hall availability, photographer details, etc is available on site.

User Types: -

1. Customer
2. Professional
3. Administrator (Owner of the event management system)

Features:

1. Users can search for hall, photographer, caterer, musician and decorator.
2. Filters will include date, price, location and availability, capacity, ratings and time slot (Fixed by the event management system) hall size, camera options with photographer like drone camera, DSLR, pin code of the hall.
3. All professionals will be categorized as Economic, Standard, Luxurious based on their charges (Decided by admin).
4. One zip-code cannot have more than one hall with same name.
5. Professional can specify which slots they are not available (I.e. they have other orders).
6. Administrator can edit / cancel / refund order on demand as per request.
7. Manual moderation by system Administrator.

ER Diagram:

